Overview: The single villa is designed for an exclusive holiday experience with a promise of comfort, luxury and elegance. The pool with sun loungers and the garden transports the guests into the holiday mood immediately. There is also an outdoor dining facility to relish homemade meals in the pleasant weather. The exclusive villa is also strategically located for fun and cherishable vacation. The nearest shops, restaurants and a supermarket are within short walking distance. There is also a golf course at 10 minutes' drive from the villa. It is very close to the Buddhist Stupa of Benalmádena, a unique attraction and the only one in Spain. Kids love the Butterfly park next to it. The town is well known among tourists and offers a diverse set of experiences. The sea is about 10 minutes' drive where guests can have fun at numerous beaches including jetskiing and kitesurfing. There is also an Aqualand waterpark nearby. For great views, head to the top of Calamorro Mountain. It can be reached via a 15-minute ride on a cable car. For those looking for a more peaceful and quiet vacation, Benalmadena Pueblo (3 minutes) is the perfect stop. The beautiful village is lined with whitewashed houses and exudes typical Andalusian vibes. The town also boasts of happening nightlife. Guests can also take day trips to Marbella (33 minutes) and Fuengirola (16 minutes) from here. The nearest airport is Málaga International Airport which is only 12 kilometers away.
